Introduction

It was early morning on September 11, 2001. I was ending a three-day rest and as I began to pack my bags in eagerness to return home to my family, my cell phone rang. It was my wife, her voice in distress, trembling with pain and sorrow as she cried out, "Did you see? Did you hear? It is on the TV; the World Trade Center Towers have been hit by terrorists."

After many days, the reality started to overcome me as I began to reflect upon events that I had seen on the news. I have been compelled to express to every American living in this great country the hidden truth behind these events and those that lie ahead.

First, I must express my condolences to those who lost loved ones in the attacks on the World Trade Center, Pentagon and to those in flight. I also would like give honor to the courageous men and women who participated in the recovery and rescue of those in need of help and comfort. I congratulate you for a job well done and for the continuing job at hand. I also would like to thank the American people for standing strong and uniting in their giving and prayer.

America the Free, is the expressed concern of an American citizen and is not directed at individuals but directed at revealing the truth behind an unseen war.

America

America, the land of the free, celebrates many holidays and one specific day is called Columbus Day. This day refers back to a man on a mission, whose uncle, a monk, had told him that he would find a land where freedom to worship would be granted to all. Today, we not only have freedom to worship but freedom of speech and enterprise. Though we have conquered many areas such as slavery, we still have many to overcome in this age.

One of our many great monuments honoring the tradition of freedom stands in New York City. The Statue Of Liberty symbolizes the statement of freedom. On September 11, 2001 the World Trade Center towers were hit, attempting to defile American freedom. We are on the brink of the revelation that we are not invincible. Households are beginning to arm themselves in readiness to stand for their freedom. Some are running back to the roots of their faith and others are seeking a new faith for the first time.

All in all, the American people have been awakened by these events to an understanding that death could knock on their door at any time. There have been reports that this awakening has brought families closer together with grateful realization of what one has. Many have slowed down on their work schedules with the understanding that money can't return anyone from the dead. The hearts of the people have been torn and the cry for compassion, forgiveness and an earnest desire to help has swept the U.S.

The Congress of Democratic and Republican parties, that was once divided has attempted to come together. The cry from this country, to maintain freedom while upholding a humanitarian cause has stretched around the globe, inviting others to join in. Some countries are willing to lay down their traditions for a time and have joined to fight this evil that excites itself by killing innocent men, women and children.

For many years, people have talked about an evil force that lurks unseen, but the events of 9-11 have made it a reality. People question themselves in wonder, as to the state of such an evil mind that could brutally kill, torture or mutilate a child of innocence, as in the days of Hitler where millions of Jews were tortured, mutilated and murdered under the orders of one man.

This same existing evil that plagues Sudan, where children are taken out of the hands of their mother and sold into slavery, some raised to become prostitutes after many assaults and rapes. Villages are burned down, mothers, fathers, and husbands and wives killed, tortured and raped before each other's eyes. The pain of separation, loss and despair that has gripped these souls has now brought its sting to America. Where were the thoughts of humanity, concern or respect of life? As a human being cries out for mercy to its tormentor with no response, waiting for death to bring relief. After its mission is completed, the tormentor maintains no remorse seeking its next victim. This evil is not of a normal human character. The evil force that possesses the mind of an individual cannot be of the natural realm, but an untold, hidden and misunderstood entity that has lurked since before man's existence, and must be revealed.

The Enemy

The greatest weapon that an enemy could possess is the defense of staying unseen and unknown. Maintaining an unknown status is victory in a war and causes the opponent to fight something it cannot see. The strategy of war is to stay unseen as long as possible and hit your opponent at will. When the enemy is revealed, it becomes an obvious target. Now we can understand that information is crucial in exposing the enemy, but only if the information is true. Therefore, we can come to the simple conclusion that people are destroyed for lack of true knowledge. Truth is now the agent of freedom because truth reveals the enemy of deception.

Deception is maintained by preventing truth from entering the mind. Just because someone believes something doesn't mean it is true. The terrorist organizations truly believe they are killing for God and that all Americans are Christians and all Israelis are Jews, for which all must die or be converted to their belief. They call this a holy war. I call it deceived and blinded. A blind person may rely on what someone tells him and a person that can see relies on their sight, yet both may still be deceived because what they heard or saw was not truth. Therefore, deception is always at work. The more a person is blinded from the truth, the more the enemy can use him.

Reality

Is it possible that we are caught up in an unseen matrix and the enemy is trying to destroy all mankind? Is the reality of war physical or spiritual? Are we fighting some thing in the natural that we should be fighting in the spiritual? This may sound very bizarre but how do we explain where feelings come from? No organ in us produces love, hate, jealousy, etc.. You may say we have a choice and I agree. But where does this choice come from? Only a God of love or a force of evil could only deliver these impressions.

The conclusion; we have the choice of what impression or thoughts we believe to be true. These impressions are spiritual because God is Spirit and so is this evil force. We must realize that accepting these impressions and the ability to make a choice identifies us as a spirit in a flesh body.

Now, you can't kill a spirit but the flesh can die because the life of our flesh is in the blood where sickness is formed. The spirit of a man will live forever and that is what separates us from an animal that has soul and flesh but no spirit. Therefore, we could not come from an animal that has no spirit. This blows the theory of Darwin that was turned into a deceptive "truth" but is actually a complete lie. The theory of Darwin was an impression or thought from the evil force that has been leading people away from the truth for centuries.

How many times have you believed something as a truth and then found out it was incorrect? This deception is no different than someone knowing what they are doing is wrong and justifying it by a false impression of the truth. In conclusion, truth brings light and light brings sight. Then, deception brings darkness and darkness brings blindness. The key struggle in our life is light verses darkness, and in this study we will label them as kingdoms of light and/or darkness.

Kingdom REALMS

In the natural realm, everything that has a beginning has an end. In the spiritual realm, things are eternal. In both these realms, there are laws that sustain them and consequently sustain man. The sun must maintain a specific distance from the earth or the earth will burn or freeze. In the complete universe, all things are relative to one another in maintaining specific functions and are upheld by a rule or law.

The law of gravity testifies what goes up must come down. One of the functions of this law is to keep things from floating out into space. In the realm of the spirit there are also laws that affect every human being. One such law is the law of sowing and reaping. Whatever a man sows, he will reap.

When a farmer plants his seed he will reap whatever he has sown, whether good seed or bad. This law is active not only in the natural or physical realm, but also in the spiritual realm.

When someone breaks the speed limit law, they reap a fine. Sometimes the reaping is postponed for a time but it always catches up to them. No one can outrun the reaping of the things that have been sown, good or bad. If we do well, we reap well and if we do bad, we reap badly. So, for every decision and action there is a consequence.

Now, if we are blinded and make bad decisions we will reap accordingly, even if we didn't know, because it is a spiritual law and supercedes man made law. Now, what better plan could there be? Evil forces of darkness, which know about this law, will prevent or blind man from knowing the truth of light. Evil impressions would cause wrong decisions, resulting in destructive reaping?

HOLY WAR

We have established that the kingdom of darkness is at war with the kingdom of light. The war is over the life of every man, in relation to the eternal realm. We can truthfully say that this holy war is a spiritual war resulting in eternal consequences. Now, we have the understanding that we are not fighting flesh and blood but powers of darkness, whoever sows to darkness reaps darkness and whoever sows to light reaps light.

So, if a person is serving darkness when death, or separation from the living natural realm occurs, that person will inherit a place of darkness and one serving light will inherit a place of light. We can now identify darkness as evil and light as God. With the understanding that we did not come from animals and were created out of love, from a God who desires fellowship, we recognize that God desires that no one perish in darkness.

To protect man, boundaries or rules had to be established to keep us walking in the light and protect us from reaping darkness. Once an individual chooses to walk out of the protective boundaries of light by disobeying the guidelines, there is no protection. If a country walks out of God's protection because of disobedience, that country is at risk of invasion.

We must define the word disobedience or to disobey as sin. The world no longer acknowledges the word sin and replaces sin and judgement with crime and punishment. In the natural, someone may commit a crime but in the spiritual, man commits sin. Now, sin is the fruit of darkness or the character of the presence of darkness. So, these impressions of evil can lead someone to sin causing the protection to lapse and result in the reaping of darkness. The war will never stop until the darkness is removed from the earth.

Contracts

What may seem to be right in the eyes of man may not be so in the eyes of God. The laws that are enforced in this country were established to protect man from harm. There are safety laws, traffic, civil, criminal, transportation, food and drug, corporate, tax and many other laws that are adopted to protect man from himself and from others. In other words, by living in this great country as an American citizen we have a contract. If we obey the laws and submit to all governing authority, we will be protected from harm, according to the governing ability that is established.

Right now, our government is doing its best to protect us from any further terrorist attacks and chemical or biological outbreaks. Now, because we believe these laws are justifiable to the best of our knowledge and agree to uphold them, we are now in covenant. This covenant or contract is stated by the understanding that if you pay and obey, you will maintain the contract of freedom. Like a landlord that is collecting rent from a tenant that pays on time, the tenant can have shelter from the weather conditions outside.

Our freedom is based on our willingness to adhere to this contract as an American citizen. This freedom that we walk, talk and express ourselves in, came with a great price. Before us, much blood was shed and many lives sacrificed to bring this nation into freedom. A covenant is a contract signed with blood and a contract is signed with man-made ink.

In 1776, the Declaration of Independence was a signed contract for freedom and in its statement, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal. That they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

On October 3, 1789 George Washington made the statement, "It is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the Providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits and to humbly implore His protection and favor."

We see that Mr. Washington was seeking protection greater than man could offer. The divine protection that can withstand and overcome any natural strength, wisdom and power that can only come from God. A covenant with God is eternal and a contract with man is temporary. As you can see, our government can only do so much and our real hope and trust must be in God. That leaves us at a point of a decision every human being must eventually make. The choice of searching out the truth of our roots leading to the answers of the questions that many of us have; Who am I? Where did I come from? And where am I headed?

The event of September 11, 2001 has brought a window of awakening that we can't ignore. In the face of such tragedy, there is a window of escape from events that lie ahead. Has the eternal protection been lifted because of a broken covenant with God? Or, maybe He is trying to bring us back to our roots and restore His covenant protection that man could not?

A cry from within arises, when someone is in desperate trouble or fear, in hope that the God they don't know will hear, an inner knowing telling them He is near.

Roots & Facts

There is no better way to begin to understand the progression of deception than to search the statements of our forefathers that have established and set the course for this great nation.

John Adams, 1756, “Suppose a nation in some distant region should take the Bible for their only Law Book, and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there exhibited... What a paradise would this region be!

Thomas Jefferson, 1781, “God who gave us life, gave us liberty. And can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are a gift from God. That they are not to be violated but with His wrath. Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever.”

Benjamin Franklin, 1787, “We have been assured, Sir, in the Sacred Writings, that except the Lord build the House, they labor in vain that build it. I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without His concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel.”

U.S. Supreme Court, 1892 “Our laws and our institutions must necessarily be based upon the teachings of the Redeemer of Mankind. It is impossible that it should be otherwise; and in this sense and to this extent, our civilization and our institutions are emphatically Christian.”

Supreme Court Rulings:

Remember, we are not fighting flesh and blood but powers of darkness that blind the eyes and hearts of men from the truth. I am not accusing people but revealing truth. For eight years, the Clinton Administration established two major trends that were unseen by the naked eye but cannot be hidden from spiritual sight. One, the military was continuously being disarmed and two, the spiritual disarmament of true values, which let down our protection.

I believe God tested the hearts of this country on the response of events that happened in the oval office and decisions relating to abortion, religious rights and other events that were behind closed doors. The reelection was a sure sign that it was the will of man and not the will of God. Maybe we need to read and learn the rules of the covenant that have been given by God and get back what has been stolen by darkness.

For the last twenty-five years we have seen the decline of true moral standards. Anyone wanting to become an American citizen would make a pledge of allegiance to the flag, with the confession of their mouth. Today, organizations rally to remove or rewrite the pledge and remove the word, God. Fifty years ago these organizations would not have been tolerated and been called communist or traitors of the U.S.

The terrorist assault is a result of the war America is losing in our own country, because a house divided will not stand. Where there is unity, there is power. The WTC towers tragedy has brought temporary unity but the Spirit of God will bring perfect unity. The plan of the enemy is to remove God and His protection from this country.

Eyewitness

Before we go any further in investigating the events of Sept. 11, I would like to relay my experiences, which established the desire to write this book.

After many years under the influence and service of darkness, I became aware of the controlling grip it had on my life. I was no longer in control and found myself drifting further away from the ones I loved and couldn't do anything about it. Drugs and alcohol, which I thought were spiritual friends and support, became my worse nightmare. What started out as a friend, set its course is to kill at the opportune time. No man could help me and I didn't understand the fight I was in, nor did I fully understand what I was fighting. The thoughts that things would get better had faded from my mind. I was going to die and I knew darkness awaited me. My heart began to scream out to the God I didn't know. My mind began to recall all the unpleasant things I had done and the words "I'm sorry" repeatedly shot out of my mouth until a sensation of love began to overtake me. I realized this love was what I had been looking for all of my life. My pain, my hurt, guilt and fear all left me and I was made new.

As a cloud of light blinded me and an unknown language began to come out of my mouth, my heart cried out "I want to come home." I realized that there is another place awaiting me, a glorious place that will be my eternal home. I not only met my Creator but I met my eternal Father and His name is Jesus.

His first, impressing words to me opened my eyes to understanding. I understood that His words are true and the Bible is His word. From that moment on, my life was completely turned around. This event and the path that it began, continually bring more understanding of truths that are hidden from the natural eye and mind. I realized that I had been lied to my whole life because I lived in darkness and those I knew, including my parents, teachers, friends and the church I went to, did not know the truth.

When the True Light came into my heart and filled me with His Spirit, I was no longer blinded by the matrix of darkness and was able to understand the written Word of God and the fellowship of a loving Father that wants His lost children back that had been taken captive by the blinding darkness. Now I know these people loved me and didn't lie purposely. They just didn't know the truth. So, I have a message that I must share so the Light can shine in your blind places and you can see and be rescued before it is too late.

Spiritual warfare

We can't forget that it is a spiritual fight manifesting in the natural realm. Because it is a spiritual fight, we need spiritual weapons and need the understanding of the enemy's tactics. But first, we must find where our enemy originated. To understand the spiritual world, we go to a spiritual book that reflects the beginning of all beliefs and traditions. So, I will be quoting locations that are found in the spiritual reference book known as the Bible.

Genesis 1:1 "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." We must understand that this statement reflects a spiritual meaning, relating to the creation of two realms with the spiritual first. The word heaven expresses spiritual (unseen) and earth expresses natural (tangible or seen). When God created the spiritual realm, He created angels known as sons of God. They are His children and part of His plan to assist His creation and upkeep of the universe.

These angels had designated offices relating to specific jobs. Three offices of high responsibility were assigned to three angels; Lucifer-praise and worship leader of the universe, Michael-head of the spiritual military, Gabriel-a messenger that stands before God. Lucifer was the highest-ranking archangel, in charge of the worship to God throughout the universe and the earth.

Ezekiel 28:11-15 expresses the perfection of this created anointed cherub or angel. Dressed with precious stones (jewels) from the earth, representing his rule, with timbrels and pipes relating to his position as worship leader, He held the highest office of an angel. He held the office of ruler of the earth and leader of the heavens until iniquity (sin) was found in him.

Isaiah 14:12-15 expresses the fall of Lucifer, the result of him exalting himself above God. Now while awaiting his sentence to begin in eternal darkness, the Lord removed him from office and created man.

In Genesis 1:26-28, God created man and woman in His image and likeness, or character. He gave Adam rule over the earth, to begin a race of natural realm children of God, having a spiritual relationship with God. Lucifer, lost his office to Adam, and lost his name, becoming Satan, prince of darkness, beast, and devil. He deceived Eve and Adam, by convincing them to disobey God. This sin removed them from the pathway of Light. This act of disobedience allowed Satan to reclaim his office, from Adam, as ruler of the earth, allowing the earth to begin its transition from paradise to a fallen nature. This transition also included man that would be born in darkness until the receiving of the truth that would reinstate a rebirth, setting him back on the pathway of light.

The owner of the earth is God and the leaseholder, to this day, is Satan. Everyone born comes into the earth in spiritual blindness and only those who have received the rebirth and follow the pathway of the True Light have dominion over Satan's rule.

Revelation 12:1-5; When Lucifer was removed from office and the throne room of God; he took one-third of the angels with him. They are now principalities, (powers of darkness in spiritual places) over countries, nations, states and cities. The kingdom of Satan is an army of evil spirits wanting to destroy all mankind because of the hatred and jealousy of the human creation.

Isaiah 9:6-7 refers to a Child that would be born and His name would be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace and of His Kingdom there would be no end. God would come to the earth as a man to reconcile His lost creation establishing His Kingdom of Light to all who would believe in His Name. He would display Himself as the Son of God and offer His earthly life, on a cross, as a living sacrifice to remove the sin of man, breaking the barrier of two realms, reconciling man to Him. He would rise from the dead after three days leaving His Name to insure entry into His Kingdom, establishing the One and only Truth, that no man comes to Father except through the Son, because they are One and the same.

After returning to His original position as Creator, He would send His Spirit, Who would declare all truth, empowering His followers with spiritual weapons of knowledge and power to fight the forces of the evil kingdom of Satan that now rules this earth, blinding the lost. No other belief system on earth has ever had their god raised from the dead or reappearing to his followers maintaining a personal relationship without earthly rituals.

The so-called terrorists are deceived, believing they are killing for a god, becoming a host for these evil spirits and, as they die, awakening in everlasting darkness. The true God is not out to destroy mankind but rescue them, because they are His children that are lost and blinded from His Truth. There can only be One Truth, One Hope, One Spirit, One God and One Father! Jesus the Christ is the Way, Truth and Life.

JIHAD

Webster's dictionary defines a Jihad as a war by Muslims against the enemies of Islam or anyone who doesn't believe and follow their ways. This war is carried out as a religious duty. The Koran is the writing of a very wealthy man born in 570 A.D. (570 years after the death of Christ) in Mecca, Saudi Arabia. He had the money to promote and distribute information he truly believed was from God.

Muhammad's Koran teaches that Christians, Jews and idolaters are the worst of all creation and obedience is more important than love and that love should only be among their believers. The Koran encourages all Muslims to wage war against all non-Muslims in the name of Allah. Not that all Muslims follow the strict guidelines of the Koran. Muhammad their prophet claimed to have a visitation by the angel Gabriel, who dictated the writings of the Koran and the spoken words of Allah their god.

History proves that before Islam came into existence the Sabeans in Arabia worshiped the moon god, who married the sun goddess, who gave birth to three goddesses. They were called Al-lat, Al-uzza and Manat. They later became idols and were worshipped throughout that part of the world as the "Daughters of Allah." Allah was the moon god, with no son and one of the 360 idols in the Kabah in Mecca (his house). The crescent moon is everywhere in Islam, relating to the moon god.

The Koran states, in Surah 5:36, the punishment of those who wage war against Allah and his Apostle, and strive with might and main for mischief through the land is: execution, or crucifixion, or the cutting off of the hands and feet from the opposite sides or exile from the land.

Surah 8:13-17- "I will instill terror into the hearts of the unbelievers, smite ye above their necks and smite all their fingertips off them. It is not ye who slew them; it was god."

Surah 9:29: “Fight those who do not believe in god and the last day...and fight people of the book (Christians and Jews) who do not accept the religion of the truth (Islam) until they pay tribute by hand, being inferior.”

Surah 9:80 –”whether thou ask for their forgiveness or not, if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness, god will not forgive them.”

I must now pose a question of concern: Why would God come to the earth and reveal Himself to thousands of people, confirming what was written about Himself thousands of years before and establish many witnesses of His death, resurrection and ascension into heaven, then sending the promise of His Spirit to those who believe, confirming His presence, love, forgiveness and power in this present time, then supposedly, chose to send an angel to one man and promote war, killing innocent people, and forcing many into slavery under a religious belief with the fear of death and punishment for not following?

Now, God knowing that we are in the age of grace and truth, brought by Him reconciling all mankind onto Him would not do such a thing. It just doesn't add up! God would not interrupt Himself. John 16:2 says the time will come that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service.

Deception of Darkness

That was not the angel Gabriel but Satan himself.

2 Corinthians 11:14-15: "For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. Therefore, it is no great wonder if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their work."

Genesis 3:1: "Now, the serpent (Satan) was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord had made."

Is it any wonder, that when truth is revealed that Satan would come right behind it and pervert it with his lies to lead people astray?

1 Timothy 4:1: "Now, the Holy Spirit expressly says that in the latter times some will depart from the faith (truth), giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons."

2 Corinthians 4:3-4: "But even if our gospel (truth) is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, whose minds the god (Satan) of this age has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the truth of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God should shine on them."

2 Corinthians 3:16: "Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord the veil is taken away."

John 1:1, 14: "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God. And the Word (Jesus) became flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth."

Acts 10:38: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him."

1 John 3:8: "He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God (Jesus) was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil."

Revelation 1:5: "and from Jesus the Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood (with His death and resurrection).”

The scriptures that I have quoted were written long before the Koran. So please, I encourage you to hang in there and keep an open mind to these truths. The purpose is to bring true understanding by revealing the darkness, allowing the light of the love of God to shine in you and bring you peace and comfort. It is amazing, the number of religions that sprouted up after the departure of the Son of God, claiming to have visitations by angels or printed plates declaring another doctrine.

Remember that Satan wants man annihilated by bringing a self-destructive situation with deceiving or blinding lies and rituals of a religion, that has a form of godliness but denies the power of God’s Spirit and His love. Satan is the ruler of this world, and only under the covering of the blood of Jesus the Christ are you free from Satan’s rule. Those who are friends of this world, make themselves enemies of God because they unknowingly become servants of Satan.

I know this sounds wild, but we must begin to realize that something is happening on this earth, all around the globe. We cannot continue to ignore the signs of the times, that something big is about to happen in relationship to man’s destiny.

The Towers

Built in 1970, 110 stories tall, about 10,000,000 square feet of rental space, the twin towers reached over 1,360 ft. each and had 4 other buildings completing this complex. The World Trade Center housed more than 430 companies from 28 countries. They engaged in a wide variety of commercial activities, including banking and finance, insurance, import and export companies, trade associations and representatives of foreign governments. An estimated 50,000 plus, people worked the World Trade Center, and 140,000 visited the complex daily. This global trading center was able to link around the world. The greatest barrier it had to overcome was language. Through the use of computers it was made possible to link with one common language, relating to business and finance.

The attack on September 11, 2001 by terrorists, attempting to kill a vast amount of people, truly proved to be unsuccessful. With 5,000 missing persons, compared to 50,000 plus workers and 140,000 visitors per day, it really was a miracle that many more did not die. The Pentagon employ's about 23,000 plus, considering the number of lives lost there was approximately a 99% survival rate. A total of the 4 planes involved in the attack could carry 1,280 people. Yet, a total of 266 people were on board that lost their lives, leaving an 80% survival rate. Sounds like God was very busy preventing a worse disaster.

Revelation

Seven days prior to the event that happened in New York, I was lying on my bed and I heard, "Behold the Day of the Lord". I said, "Lord?" Knowing that the Day of the Lord represents judgement, I was shaken and sat straight up.

I heard again, "There will be a time when you will no longer say behold the Kingdom of God but behold the Day of the Lord."

I felt hurt and concerned for this country as though no one was listening to the voice of God because of so many distractions. Our Bible study was in about six hours and I knew I was supposed to teach on the Day of the Lord. As I began to gather information in the Bible relating to the Day of the Lord, I kept getting the impression that this was a preparation for events that would take place to wake people up from a blinded false reality.

I was reminded of the tower of Babel, the event in which God destroyed the tower, removed the only common language then scattered people to other lands with other languages. This action was the result of the people wanting to be like gods, trusting in themselves with no fear (reverence) of the true God. They had foreign gods and had forgotten that it was God that gave them talents, wisdom, food, sunshine and rain, amongst many other life-serving gifts. We still have a global common language with which God attempted to get man's attention and prepare us for future events by allowing man to have to reformulate the computer in the fear of its breakdown with the arrival of Y2k.

Judgement

When people hear the word, judgment they embrace fear. Judgments are simply the results of decisions and actions, leading to a consequential outcome, whether good or bad. If the deed reflects the character of good or evil, the results will transmit a reward, sentence or correction.

A judge, appointed by the people, distributes all legal judgments. The outcome can vary as a result of the judge's mood or personal belief. Now, God, the Judge of the Universe, does not change. What may seem right in the court of man may not be right in the court of the Eternal God. That is why Jesus came to prepare man for His eternal judgement. Dying on the cross, forgiving man and removing his guilt, shame and sin. These are the results of His love, but to those who reject His love, He stands as eternal Judge awaiting every man.

All mankind is judged at his or her death. There is no waiting period or working out your wrongs after death. Once the last breath is out, it is over. It is accounted for man to die once, so, you can't come back and fix it. Immediately at someone's death, they are judged according to whom they serve and either goes to heaven or hell.

Those that go to heaven will be judged and are rewarded for their service. Not that their service got them into heaven, but they served because they have a relationship with the Creator and Father, Jesus the Christ. There will be another judgement that will come to the earth called the Seven-Year Tribulation, where mankind will have the last opportunity to repent for their sins and accept the truth of Jesus the Christ.

At the end of Tribulation, Christ will come and judge the nations that came against Israel and will then reign for 1,000 years. After the 1,000-year reign of Christ on the earth, those in hell will be judged and sentenced to the eternal lake of fire. God is giving ample opportunity for mankind to get saved from this eternal judgement. In true reality, it will be man who sends himself to either heaven or hell according to his deeds and beliefs.

The Day of The Lord

The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night (2 Peter 3:10). In other words, you don't know when it is your turn to come before the Creator and be judged for your life.

Now, before we can go any further, I must explain a few things relating to the expression, the day of the Lord. The day of the Lord relates to judgments that will be manifested in three areas. The first judgment is in relationship to an individual's departure from the natural realm, or death. The second judgment is in relationship to a seven-year judgement on the earth known as Tribulation. And the third judgment is in relationship to the return of Jesus the Christ, who will return to the earth as King and Judge all nations, establishing His Kingdom with a thousand year reign, ending with the final eternal judgement. So, the day of the Lord is always in relationship to judgement, leading to chastisement or escape.

Zephaniah 1:14-16: "the great day of the Lord is near; it is near and hastens quickly. The noise of the day of the Lord is bitter; their mighty men shall cry out. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of devastation, a day of darkness (evil) and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness (smoke), a day of trumpet and alarm (warning), against the fortified cities and against the high towers (New York Trade Towers). I will bring distress upon men and they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord; their blood shall be poured out like dust and their flesh like refuse. Neither their silver nor gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath."

This prophecy was written 625 years before the birth of Christ or 2,627 years ago. I truly believe that one of the relationships of this prophecy was intended for September 11, 2001 as a warning or wake up call to America. This prophecy revealed an evil darkness that would attack America and shock the hearts of the people. We must not forget that our fight is not against flesh and blood but against evil forces of darkness and against those who are hosts to their plan. This fight is not over and will continue to get harder for all mankind. We must be sober and vigilant because our adversary the devil (Satan's kingdom) walks about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour, 1 Peter 5:8.

“Take heed that no one deceives you, for many will come in my Name (false religions and prophets) and you will hear of wars and rumors of war but all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom and there will be famines, pestilences and earth quakes in various places. All these are the beginning of sorrows,” Mathew 24:4-8. I truly believe that we are not at the beginning of sorrows but at the end. If you look at the happenings around the world you can see that the beginning of sorrows has been going on for a long time. The next event following the beginning of sorrows is the tribulation for three and one-half years, then great tribulation for three and one-half years, “such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, nor ever shall be” Mathew 24:21. So, we must again understand that the wrath of God will come to the earth in the very near future.

Judgment is in effect right now in the Church of the Body of Christ. The Lord is cleaning up His people, preparing them for His return. He is calling the back-slidden sheep back home, which will then lead the lost to His Throne. If you're a believer and not walking according to His word and not fighting in God's spiritual battle, you will become a casualty. Remember, the word believe represents; to follow, because, if someone truly believes, they will follow. It is time to run to the presence of God and not away to the hands of darkness.

Last Days

“Now learn this parable from the fig tree (Israel), when its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves you know that summer is near (last days). Assuredly I say to you this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place” - Matthew 24:32-35.

Israel is the spiritual time clock of the prophecies relating to the return of Christ. In 1948, Israel had to once again become a nation and in 1967, Jerusalem had to become its capitol to begin the final countdown that will change the world. A generation cycle is about 40 years; (bringing us to approximately to the year 2007), from the time Jerusalem became the capitol of Israel. Now, we know that nobody knows the exact time but we can get very close because of the prophetic events that are happening according to the Bible. All eyes are on Israel at this time and the U.S. must support her because it is the will of God.

“But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come. For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power”- 2 Timothy 3:1-5.

“For as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man (Jesus the Christ) be. For in those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage (fulfilling the lust of the flesh with gluttony, drunkenness, sexual perversion and approval to enter marriage with the same sex) until the day that Noah entered the ark and did not know until the flood came and took them all away. Noah and his family were the only ones to escape, because he walked upright before God,” Matthew 24:36-42.

“The angel of the Lord spoke to Daniel the prophet saying; “at the time Michael (the archangel) shall stand up, the great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people (Israel); and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since a nation, even to that time. At that time your people (those walking upright before God) shall be delivered, everyone who is found in the book (of life). And many of those who sleep in the dust (dead) of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt... But you Daniel shut up the words and seal the book until the time of the end; (when the understanding will be available) many shall run to and fro and knowledge (technology) will increase.” Daniel 12:1-4.

“He who overcomes (the temptations of the world) shall be clothed in white garments and I will not blot his name out of the Book of Life.” Revelation 3:5.

“Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.” James 1:12

The reality is we can see that the prophecies of the Bible are unfolding and being fulfilled right before our eyes, indicating that we are that generation to see the world change and the destiny of man be fulfilled with the return of Christ. If you are truly seeking the truth, you won't turn your head from these events but you will search out the facts of the Word of the living God.

“For when they say; peace and safety, then sudden destruction comes upon them as labor pains upon a pregnant woman and they shall not escape.” 1 Thessalonians 5:3

The world is looking for peace. Many believe if we could rid the world of the evil of terrorism, it would bring peace. There are negotiations of peace, summits of peace, mediations of peace and the desire for peace. Peace is talked about, sought out and there is even an attempt to buy it. Now, the truth is, peace cannot be brought to this earth by the act of man or the will of man, but only by the return of the Prince of Peace. Nobody can buy peace. The peace that surpasses understanding comes as a free gift with the acceptance of the Savior.

Escape the Wrath

“For God did not appoint us to wrath but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us that whether we wake (alive) or sleep (dead) we should live together with Him.” 1 Thessalonians 5:9-10

Please understand that God is not some old man sitting in heaven waiting for some one to make a mistake, so He can judge them. His wrath comes upon those who reject His love. God chose to enter the realm held by time and became His own creation, then call Himself a Son (Jesus), became the blood sacrifice to remove the sin of man and restore mankind as His children. He then returned home to heaven and sent His Holy Spirit to live and dwell in man, to those who are willing to follow Him.

Disasters are allowed in hope of waking people up to the understanding that there is more to this life, granted to us by God, than just selfishly motivated desires to become successful. More people are worried about saving money and building earthly treasures than helping those in need.

Truly, if you believe that Jesus is your Savior and refuse to give your financial part to spread the truth and help others in need, you don't know Him. When was the last time you gave ten percent of your gross income to the kingdom of God? We must look at the desire of our heart to determine where we stand before God. And we must ask the question – who do we trust and lean on, man or God? It's not about a money thing; it's about a relationship thing.

“The Lord is known by the judgment He executes; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. The wicked shall be turned into hell and the nations that forget God. Arise, O Lord, do not let man prevail and let the nations be judged in Your sight. Put them in fear (reverence) O Lord, that they may know themselves to be just men.” Psalm 9:16-20

“For if God did not spare the angels who sinned but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved for judgment and did not spare the ancient world but saved Noah... and delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked... then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment unto the day of judgment.” 2 Peter 2:4-9

“For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first, then we who are alive will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air and be with Him forever more.” 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

This event of the Lord removing His people is called Rapture, which means “caught up”. The righteous dead believer and the live believer, at this time, will receive a glorified body just like Jesus did when He rose from the dead. This glorified body will allow the born again child of God to have access to the natural and spiritual realm at will. This event will take place before or during the Tribulation period that will be on the earth, as the wrath of God brings judgment to those who rejected His love and chose not to walk in His truth.

“Now this I say brethren that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does corruption inherit incorruption. Behold I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised incorruptible and we shall be changed. For this corruption must put on incorruption and mortal must put on immortality.” 1 Corinthians 15:50-53

What a glorious moment this will be. How can anyone want to miss this event and enter the eternal realm? Unfortunately, many so-called believers will miss this event because of the lawlessness they still practice.

“Now the works of the flesh are evident which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery (drugs), hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and a like; of which I told you beforehand, just as I told you in past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.” Galatians 5:19-21

The Word of God is true and will not return void. He said it and it will happen. Remember, God is not interested in your belief but that you know the truth. The Word of God is your escape to the truth and the truth will make you free through the Spirit of God.

The Lord has chosen a man of God to lead this country, as a way of escape for the future events that will take place. December 4, 2002 will be marked as a day in history and written in the eternal Book, as the President and leaders of this country humbled themselves before the Mighty Hand of God, asking for reconciliation, forgiveness and mercy, to guide this country in victory and uprightness before the eyes of the Living God. September 11th was a day of disaster, but December 4th will be known as a day of rebuilding.

Conclusion

This is a time for restoration, reconciliation and salvation for you as an individual and for this country as a chosen land of God. America the free and the brave, has been chosen to bring hope to all nations with the message of Jesus the Christ and the hand of His compassion to those in need of food, clothing and shelter. We are a blessed nation and need to be a blessing to a lost and dying world that harbors hurting, hungry and deceived children of God. It is time to share your freedom with others and build your treasures in the eternal realm of heaven because the temporary realm will soon come to an end.

Remember, you're not fighting flesh and blood, because you are not just flesh and blood, but a spirit. The ruler of this world has people caught up in a dream of deception by cloning them into his image, with television, music, false heroes and false gods. You can't turn your back anymore because it has come to you face to face. You are responsible for the information that has been brought to you. Isn't it time you start looking beyond your comfort zone and into the real zone?

Where do you stand today? Are you one who sits in the back row of a church week after week and nothing changes, especially you? Or are you one that visits a church only on the holidays, so that you feel good about yourself. Maybe you're one that is only concerned about success, accomplishment and self-gratification, calling yourself a good person, indulging yourself in the fruit of the tree of good and evil, while the true fruit of the tree of Life passes you by.

Has oppression, guilt, loneliness and despair, hovered over you for so long that suicide seems to be the only way of relief? Are you tired of trying to buy happiness that only lasts a short period of time, going from one relationship to another with the end result the same? Has rejection, abuse or addiction, held you captive in the grip of fear so long that you can't fight any more? Have you tried somuch religion, that the rules and regulations have choked the life out of you? When you shut your doors at night, are you ashamed that others may find out what you are doing behind those doors?

There is an answer to all the afflictions of this world. There is One who sees, knows and cares how you feel. He wants you to know who you are and where you will go when this life is over.

He said," I AM the Way, Truth and Life. Come to Me all you with heavy burdens and I will give you rest. Cast your cares upon Me for I care for you. Call on My name and I will answer you and show you great and mighty things. I AM JESUS".

We are all sinners and have fallen short. Time is running out and the matrix of this world is closing in. What will you chose today, the temporary world or eternal life? You can start fresh right now by asking forgiveness of your sins and receive the healing, cleansing blood of Jesus to remove all sin and shame. You need a Savior to rescue you from death. Give your life to Jesus and ask the Holy Spirit to fill you with His love and power. Now you know and now you're accountable! What are you going to do with this truth of Jesus?

One Year Later....
